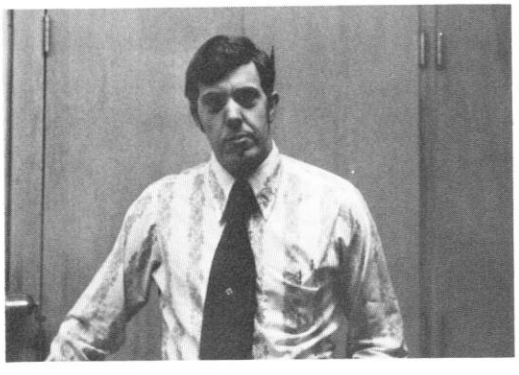
DEDICATION



The senior class of 1975 would like to dedicate this years annual to Mr. Keller, our superintendent. He has enthusiasm for the school as a whole and this enthusiasm not only improved the school but also the student body. We feel very proud to have known him.

Thanks to the efforts of these men, many improvements have taken place in our school. The largest and most important of these improvements has yet to take place. The construction of a new high school building. It should begin sometime during 1975.

Again, a sincere thank-you to the School-Board and Gary Keller for a job well done.

TWELVE YEARS TOGETHER

First Row: M. Moffitt, C. Chapin, D. Thomas, C. McDougall, S. Krauss, K. Powell; Second Row: T. Shafer, R. Anderson, J. Putnam, D. Settlemire, E. Williams, R. Benson, B. DePuy, R. Wilson, K. Hilty; Third Row: G. Tuttle, B. Light, M. Riedel, C. Thomas, S. Schafer, B. Hanna, C. Anspach, R. Magee.

Article I. To the Freshman Class, we will the burden of three more years of high school.
Article II. To the Sophomore Class, we will the optomism that leads us to graduate.
Article III. To the Junior Class, we will the ability to win Junior-Senior Day two years in a row (for that you might have to be Juniors all over again).
Article IV. To the Faculty, we will the bittersweet reflections of the year's events.
Article V. We, members of the Liberty-Benton Senior Class of 1975, being of sound character and questionable ability, will the following:
I, RANDY ANDERSON, will my curly hair and moustache to Mr. Osborne, and my fantastic athletic ability and grades to Steph Garner.
I, CRAIG ANSPACH, will my bass drum and excuses I didn't use to the drum section. Keep up the gerat work. Remember Mrs. Miller likes to paint new drum heads.
I, JEFF BAUMGARDNER, will if you will.
I, CINDY CHAPIN, will by ability to keep my mouth shut in class to my brother, Steve. Let's AMAZE the teachers, Steve.
I, BRUCE DEPUY, will part of my beautiful hair to Mr. Butler, to cover up his spot, and the rest to Mrs. Miller, so she never gets that spot.
I, BECKY GARDNER, will my perfect attendance record to Darlene Martin.
I, DAWN HARSHE, will my notorious name "Stringbean," made popular by Miss Schutzberg, to Janis Benson. Watch out Janis, she only uses that name in embarrassing situations.
I, BOB HANNA, will my ability to eat to Bob Schoonover.
I, KENT HILTY, bequeath my interest in athletics to Mr. Mays.
I, SANDY KRAUSS, will my ability to have a cold during all of basketball season and the lump on my leg from my Kleenex in my tube sock to Lori Flick, Anita Clymer, and Cathy Saums. Wear it in good health.
I, CINDY KUHLMAN, will my seven different cheerleading uniforms and 102 sore throats to anyone who has enough strength to carry on, because I never did.
I, WELDON MAGEE, will my parking place to Tim Jackson. Fight to keep your paint on.
I, CATHY McDOUGALL, will my ability to be the last person out of the classroom to Mrs. Miller.
I, LINDA McDOWELL, will to Bill Davidson the ability to learn how to drive as good as Steve Kneger. Good luck Bill, I doubt if you'll make it.
I, MARY MOFFITT, will my ability to be a good girl to anyone who wants it. Good luck--you're going to need it.
I, KATHY POWELL, will my new book, LEARN HOW TO SING OPERA IN ONE EASY LESSON, to Mary Schafer. Now maybe you can sing like Chrissy Lips. Don't forget your matching lipstick and turtlenecks!!!
I, JEFF PUTNAM, will my ability to have only one book for 5 credits my senior years to Deb Knapp, and my many conversations with the law while driving to Mark Vermillion.
I, MARK RIEDEL, will my ability to take retard English and Science five times in three years to my little brother, Mike.
I, TOM SCHAFER, will my ability to skip hundreds of study halls to the guys in the audio-visual department. Remember, keep the school on its toes.
I, TERESA SMITH, will my ability to "rock the boat" to Cathy Saums. Hang on Saums, you'll survive.
I, DELBERT SETTLEMIRE, will my ability to sleep through Senior Problems to Jeff Taylor.
I, BONNIE STALL, will my ability to run into anything or anyone at any time to Stacey Kirk. Do a bang-up job, I did!
I, DOUG SWITZER, will my ability to flush the toilets in the lockerroom and scald everybody in the shower to Curt Witham.
I, CHUCK THOMAS, will my ability to go to Ag. Bus. only once a week to Berkel, and my ability to skip Senior Problems and go home to Cathy Hoskinson.
I, DONNA THOMAS, will my ability to fly over bridges to Deb.T. and Shari S.
I, GARY TUTTLE, will my 4-wheel drive to Curt Witham for when the going gets rough.
I, EDGAR WILLIAMS, will my phrase, "It's a big one," to Tony England and my football ability to Brent Bell.
I, RUSTY WILSON, will my heighth to Ralph McDonald.
I, DAWN WINGATE, will to Diane Flick the seat right behind Coach Butler and Coach Mihalik. Sit Lightly!

SENIOR TRIP

As the credit manager of the class of 1975 I know the financial difficulties of a class trip. Having gone to Washington D.C. and New York City for the first time on this trip I discovered it was well worth every effort and money put into it. It was an experience we (the class), will never forget.

JUNIOR-SENIOR DAY

The tuff Competition given by the Seniors on Jr.-Sr. day left the Juniors in a daze, as the picture below indicates. The final score of 150- 65 tells the story.

Specifically, the Seniors won the following events: Boys softball, Girls 50 yard dash, high jump, shot putt, discus, long jump. Well let's just say that the Juniors didn't have a chance. Better luck next year.

Sorry Charlie!

Don't feel bad Juniors!

Food and drink for everyone!

New event, egg toss.

This year basketball season was one that surely kept everyone on the edges of their chairs. Our team crept through the season without much noise but, in this sport it is the tournaments that count. Well, I think that everyone learned what one point can do to your highest hopes. But, Coach Butler will be coming right back with his boys next year and a bright outlook on next season.

Coach Darnall and his group of inspired thinclads did it again, capturing the 1975 conference championship. Individuals again played an important role, as in previous years. Despite setbacks, many records were broken and the team accomplished several things. The two mile relay team of Williams, Heidelbaugh, Wittenberg, and Switzer went undefeated and recorded the best time in the state this year. Doug Wittenberg was in on six record-breaking performances, Doug Switzer followed with four, and the team of Williams, Witham, Hoskinson and Benson shattered the existing mile relay record. Although our success was limited this year the team did seem to get up for the big ones, and this alone made for a successful season. We hope our winning tradition will carry over in to the future. A special thanks to Coach Darnall for his work with the distance people, and to Coach Mays for his work with the sprinters.

ANY NUMBER CAN DIE

Sliding panels, thunderstorms, and a hooded murderer set the stage for the 1920's mystery-comedy presented by the Drama Club. In its first year, the club was open to any student from the ninth to the twelfth grade. Miss Diane Wilson's patience and determination as director gave the cast and crew the desire needed to practice long and hard in the unheated gym, and to perform with skill for an inexperienced troupe.

Rehearsals indicated disaster, but through sweat, prayer, and worry, the Drama Club's first play evolved into something the cast, crew, and Miss Wilson will remember with pride. To the future Drama Club members- "Break a leg"

Starring: Brent Bell, Gwen Price, Kay Lanning, Tim Shank, Curt Witham, Bruce Dooley, Diana Zeltner, Cathy Chaskel, Craig Anspach, Brad Clymer, Dawn Swisher, and Dave Baldwin
